New Rules Made in Colored Giants-Millionaires Ball Game

The rule book was left at home when the Lions' Colored Giants and the Legion House of David Millionaires met in a super fast-ball game Friday evening, July 22. The final (official) score was 22-20, the winners being the Giants or the Millionaires, depending on which team member or fan you asked.

The Giants fielded a team of the darkest hue in a variety of dress, while the outstanding feature of the Millionaires was the wide assortment of facial foliage growth to terminate in pointed beards, Van Dykes and plain bush-growth contrasted delicately with the opposing team's jet-black faces and grinning white teeth.

The game was wide-open all the way and the umpires, C. "Midnight" Reiber and S. "Sidovitch" Gilson, were always on the job with cowbell, whistle and a length of rubber hose. Comic capers kept the large crowd amused throughout the game and Ed Wiggins at the mike of the public address system added to the fun with short biographies of various players.

Colored Giants participating in the game were G. "Fatso" Wilkins,

"Lil'n" Berscht, "Hotdog" Engwer, "Slim" Morris, Fred "One-arm" Evans, "Mose" Devine, Ed "Lanky" Ford, "Shorty" Blore, "Andy" Halley, "Levi" Law, "Abe" Fulkerth, "Timmy" Kaufman, "Sol" Tastus, Klein, E. "Amos" Clarke, "Sawbones" Sackett, E. "Kingfish" Klinck, "Speedball" Krueger.

Millionaires playing were H. "Albie" Gillrie, G. "Glootie" Gillrie, "Yikie" Waugh, "Yugovitch" Free, "Moe" Payne, "Glugovitch" Thring, M. "Yorgie" Wilkins, "Boski" Holub, M. "Murski" Anderson, McCoy, B. "Bagabi" Walker, H. "Wogovitch" Skerry, D. "Dongovitch" Fleury and Ed "Popovitch" Gillis. The scorekeepers were the bearded lady, Joyce "Anastasia" Morgan and Mrs. "One-arm" Evans.

The game was followed by a tug-of-war between the two teams with the Legion Millionaires out-groaning out-grunting and out-pulling the Lions' Colored Giants to win the event.

Proceeds amounting to $62.54 will be donated to the Didsbury Memorial Community Centre.

TOM SWANBY STRIKES OIL AT OTTAWA

Tom Swanby of the First Westcott Scout Troop was a member of the oil drilling crew from Central Alberta which struck a gusher at the Canadian Boy Scout Jamboree now going on at Ottawa. The barrel of crude oil buried in the ground beforehand helped some but the boys put over the idea from coast to coast that Alberta is really becoming the oil centre and the Dominion as well as the "Rootin' Tootin' Wild West."

Mr. Freddie Cox of Gull Lake was a visitor at the B.A. Atkinson home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gooder of Courtenay, B.C. spent the week

Crop prospects in the Didsbury district have been greatly improved during the past ten days, when over four inches of rain brought renewed hopes to some farmers, and assured others of good yields of wheat and coarse grains.

A week ago heavy rains set in and continued until Sunday morning, bringing almost three inches of moisture. During the week additional showers fell and again Sunday night a heavy storm brought considerable rain, and for the present, at least, there is sufficient moisture for all crops.

While the rains came too late to save most stubble in wheat east of town, the rainfall will produce an estimated 15 bushels to the acre and most farmers will now have an abundance of feed. Some of the later-sown crops which had not headed out will produce good yields if the fall is favorable.

West of town the crop prospects on the whole are bright, and there are many good stands of wheat and coarse grains.

The hay crop this year was light, compared with other seasons, although the recent rains will assure good summer and fall pasture.

The reception for some 25 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. The luncheon was served under the trees between showers of rain. The bride's table was decorated with flowers and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. R. Gillrie presided at the coffee urn, while Mrs. Syd Hall and Miss Lucille Collinge assisted in serving.

Father Tessier proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded. The remainder of the afternoon was spent in taking wedding pictures and the rendering of guitar solos and songs by Miss Audrey Radford. The happy couple will make their home in Calgary.

STRICT CONTROL FOR EXPORT OF ALBERTA NATURAL GAS

Measures to give sweeping powers to the Alberta Oil and Natural Gas Conservation Board over export of gas and oil were passed at the regular session of the Alberta Legislature last week.

Permits to export natural gas will be granted by the Conservation Board under a new act, titled the Gas Resources Preservation Act. It provides that when application is made to export gas, the applicant must say what field will be tapped, its estimated reserves, the marketing areas and estimated requirements.

The Act provides that the Board may grant or refuse a permit, with the approval of the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, after hearing the arguments of the company wishing to export gas.

One of the major provisions of this legislation is the granting of power to the Conservation Board to divert gas, if for the Alberta consumer, an emergency exists.

When the Board grants a permit to export gas, it may set a maximum amount the company may take from the ground and from what pool this gas must come. The permit must also state under what conditions the gas may be diverted, reduced or interrupted.

Must Supply Communities

Another regulation in the Act provides that exporting companies must supply gas to all communities or consumers adjacent to its facilities which can be reasonably supplied.

If the terms of the permit, the act or any other act relating to oil or gas conservation are violated, the Conservation Board has the right to cancel a company's permit.

In cases where the Conservation Board and gas buyers and sellers cannot agree on the price, the Board of Public Utilities Commissioners is designated as the place of appeal.

Stocks of creamy butter in Canadian cities on April 22, 1949, amounted to 5,361,000 pounds, over three times as high as last year's 1,708,000 pounds.

WEDDING JADES

JACKSON—WOOD

Baskets of pink and white gladioli and foliage formed the setting in front of this fireplace for an afternoon wedding ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hunsperger of Didsbury when rings were exchanged by Miss Claire Iris Wood, younger daughter of Mrs. D.B. Wood of Didsbury, and Mr. Glen Wesley Jackson, youngest son of Mrs. Lucy Jackson and the late Mr. E.C. Jackson of Acme, Alberta.

Rev. Bainbridge of Knox United Church officiated at the ceremony in which the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Mr. Kenneth Wood.

Mrs. Harvey Jackson played the wedding march.

The bride chose an afternoon frock of dusty rose sheer. The bodice featured a cut-work yoke, V-shaped neckline, cap sleeves and a fitted waist line with a flared peplum. The skirt featured back fullness. She wore a large brim picture hat trimmed with white daisies and long pink veil. Rose lace mitts completed her ensemble. The bride's only jewellery was a triple strand of pearls with matching ear-rings, a gift of the groom. She carried American Beauty roses.

Mrs. Lynn Hunsperger, sister of the bride, wore a mixture of honor and for the occasion chose an afternoon frock of powder blue crepe trimmed with self covered buttons and the back featuring double panels. She wore a matching mohair picture hat and carried a basket of pink carnations.

The groomsmen was Mr. Richard Hay, brother-in-law of the groom. Ushering the guests was Mr. Lynn Hunsperger.

During the signing of the register, Miss Sarah Zook sang "Because."

Mrs. Wood wore a navy blue georgette sheer with white accessories for her daughter's wedding, while the bridegroom's mother was frocked in a navy blue crepe two-piece. Both mothers featured a large white picture hat trimmed in navy. They complemented their ensembles with corsages of pink sweetheart roses.

The bride's table, for the reception, was covered with a lace cloth and centred with a tiered wedding cake flanked by tall pink tapered and round vases of pink and white sweet peas. Silver and white wedding bells and pink and white streamers and baskets of peonies were used throughout the rooms.

Mr. Lynn Hunsperger proposed the toast to the bride.

Honors at the tea and coffee urns were performed by Mrs. E. Page and Mrs. Wesley Stearns. Assisting in serving the forty guests were Miss Allison Earl, Miss Lucy Ann Stearns, Miss Marjorie Jackson, Miss Hilda Derkson, Mrs. Wm. McGaffigan and Miss Grace Hunsperger.

Mr. Lynn Hunsperger acted as master of ceremonies throughout the reception, which was given during the reception.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson left by motor for a wedding trip to Niagara Falls, Ontario, and points east via the USA.

The bride donned for travelling a burgundy red gabardine suit, black hat and matching accessories.

On their return they will reside on the groom's farm near Acme.
